- Constructed from rubber wood with a beautiful brown finish.
- Features a dual-sided blackboard for users to write messages on both sides.
- Black board surface accepts stick chalk, wet-erase pens or liquid chalk markers.
- The 27-5/8" w x 43" h x 19" d display features a 24" w x 36" w writing surface.

These menu black boards, a-frame chalkboards are designed for use in a variety of indoor settings. Each indoor sign comes with two 24" x 36" writable textured blackboard areas. These a-frame chalkboards enable users to write their messages on both sides. The display allows users to maximize their advertising capabilities. These a-frame chalkboards that feature two black boards allow users to be creative in designing their own colorful and enticing messages. These items can be used to highlight promotions or ongoing events, or display written advertisements and announcements. These a-frame chalkboards are perfect in front of restaurants, bakeries, retail shops, and many other businesses. Customers are required to use regular stick chalks, wet-erase or liquid chalk markers to write on the textured black board. The use of wet-erase or liquid chalk markers (sold separately) with these a-frame chalkboards is strongly recommended, as writing with these neon pens will make your written messages stand out and get noticed. Messages can be easily wiped off from the blackboard in minutes using a damp cloth.

These a-frame chalkboards that are dual-sided are ideal for use by various business locations, as they feature a light brown finish to coordinate with any setting. Business owners can use these blackboards to lure customers in to check out their products or services. These rubber wood a-frame chalkboards are designed for use within indoor locations, such as restaurants, cafes, bistros, schools, storefronts and retail stores. Although these blackboard stands are designed for indoor use, customers can also place these units outdoors, only under fair weather conditions. Each black board features a chain stopper that is designed to prevent the unit from angling back to far or falling over. These blackboard stands, brown a-frame chalkboards are sure to get your messages noticed by the public. The restaurant black board seen here also has hinges at the top, enabling users to fold each unit flat for easy storage. Purchase this black chalkboard at an affordable price from this online source today.

(Please Note: These menu chalk boards are designed for indoor use only. However, they can be used outdoors under ideal weather conditions.)
