Congratulations and thank you to you all (including the one member who missed this meeting; I know she too would have voted for it). Cambridge thus maintains its proud history in this regard.

PS My activism at this point is centered on divestment of institutions from fossil fuels, and on stopping the pipelines (Keystone XL and the Northeast Pipeline), because solving the climate crisis is literally the sine qua non. I'm working with 350MA.org.
-- And notice: so far, over 95,000 people have signed Credo's pledge of civil disobedience alone (there are other pledges as well) in connection with the pipeline.. Finally, finally, this movement is taking off. Better late than never!

Dear friends--

I learned of this item on Monday's agenda too late to let you know. Good news that it passed!

At Monday night's meeting, the Cambridge City Council voted 8-0 to pass an order limiting when the Cambridge policy will cooperate with ICE detainers.

Congratulations to everyone who worked on this and related campaigns!

Specifically, congrats to Peter Lowber, Vicky Steinetz, Shannon Erwin, Joey Michalakes, and others who testified on Monday.
