Enough! Enough! Cambridge has been handed over to developers for far too long....the (tax-free) universities have encroached and squeezed all the lower income residents out. This is not right. Cambridge used to be a pleasant place to live---diverse, with lots of artists and culture---now it seems that this city no longer has the principles and standards Cambridge has stood out for for so many years.

Please stand for a livable, affordable and diverse community and make a master plan that reflects the standards of this kind of community ----reject real estate greed and Normandy tower up-zoning now!
