I and everyone else I've spoken to about this and most of the other Central Square development find it appalling.

I drive home every night on Broadway to 52 Dana St. Broadway will remain the same street, as will, I am told, other Cambridge streets and the T.

Where are all these additional people going to fit when they're coming and going??????

Add the Kendall Square development and you have one big nightmare.

The developers develop and then are on to the next mega project. We residents are left dealing with the consequences.

Some people become richer, but all of us will suffer.
