

Who: Cambridge Open Studios (COS)

- A projected 200 artists to participate, showing their work at an estimated 150 venues
- All visual and performing artists living and/or working in Cambridge and/or collaborating with a participating Cambridge based institution, are eligible to participate.

What: A new collaboration between the Cambridge Arts Council, Cambridgeport Artists Open Studios (CAOS), North Cambridge All Arts Open Studios (NoCA), as well as artists and organizations in East, West, and Mid Cambridge, culminating in a city wide event showcasing the work of Cambridge artists.

Combining connections and resources of the collaborating organizations enables Cambridge Open Studios to solicit a greater number of artists, community members and visitors to Cambridge than events of past years.

When: Cambridge Open Studios will be divided geographically and held over three weekends.

- Cambridge Open Studios-North/West: April 25-26
- Cambridge Open Studios-Central: May 9-10
- Cambridge Open Studios-East: May 30-31

Where: Cambridge Open Studios geographical divisions are as follows:

- North/West (formerly organized by NoCa) - features neighborhoods 8-13
- Central (formerly organized by CAOS) - features neighborhoods 4-7
- East - featuring neighborhoods 1-3
- Works will be on view in studios, homes, & group venues throughout the participating neighborhoods
- A map of Cambridge neighborhoods can be found on the Cambridge Arts Council website

Attendance: 2,000+ Expected attendees from the Cambridge community and the greater Boston area over the course of the three events

Promotional Materials:

- 8,000+ brochures containing information on all three weekends
- E-mail blasts to be sent to 3000+list members
- Posters to be hung in businesses, municipal buildings, schools and universities, libraries, community organizations, and artist live/work spaces throughout the city

Tickets: All events are FREE and open to the public.

Producer: The Cambridge Arts Council – an award-winning arts agency founded in 1974

Nurturing the Arts in Cambridge

344 Broadway 2nd Fl • Cambridge, MA 02139 • 617-349-4385 • www.cambridgeartscouncil.org