

BABYTIME: Caring, Playing, Nurturing
Free and for families living in Cambridge

Mondays, 12:30 - 2:30 p.m.

Center for Families playroom

70 Rindge Ave. in the Peabody school (back of the building on the right)

Tuesdays, 12:30 - 2:30 p.m.

Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House Infant room

71 Cherry St. (back of building– grey door), located near Central Sq.

These are informal playtime and support groups for parents/caregivers with infants: 0-15 months. The groups are a time for young children to play with other children their age. It is also an opportunity for adults to share experiences, ask questions, and meet other parents. This group is facilitated by Christine Doucet who is a lactation counselor, infant massage instructor and has a background as a nurse-midwife.

Feel free to come and go as you need

Just drop-in! You don't need to register.

Please call Christine Doucet at the Center For Families
for more information: 617 349.3003 or cdoucet@cambridgema.gov

Center for Families is funded by the Massachusetts Family Network, Children's Trust Fund and the City of Cambridge