

Center for Families

Baby Group for Parents
returning to work or school
(For parents and their babies under 15 months)
Free and for families living in Cambridge

Every other Mondays, 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
Upcoming dates: September 13 & 27;
October 18 & November 1st

Going back to work or school while taking care of young children could be challenging as well as rewarding. The goal of this group is to give parents a space to connect, talk and relax in a supportive environment while babies continue to play. The group is lead by Jen Roberts who has years of experience in leading groups. All languages are welcome.

Center for Families playroom
Peabody School, 70 Rindge Ave.
(enter at the back of the school building on the right)

Just drop-in! You don't need to register.

For information call Christine Doucet at the Center for Families
617 349.3003 or cdoucet@cambridgema.gov

Center for Families is funded by the Department of Early Education and Care, the Children Trust Fund and the City of Cambridge
For more information visit our website at www.cambridgema.gov/DHSP2/families.cfm