Cambridge Police Share Safety Reminder Ahead of Bruins Game 7

June 15, 2011 – The Cambridge Police Department is reminding residents to act responsibly tonight while viewing Game 7 of the Stanley Cup Finals between the Boston Bruins and Vancouver Canucks.

Understanding that many people will be frequenting local establishments to view the game on television, additional staffing has been added and officers will be visible in areas across the city.

CPD also asks those with plans tonight to please remember to drink responsibly and have a designated driver if you cannot reach your destination by walking or taking public transportation.

No matter the outcome of the game, Cambridge Police encourage people to be respectful of property and obey the law.

If you spot a crime or suspicious activity, contact the Cambridge Police Department at 617-349-3300. You can also text anonymous tips to Tip411 (847411). Begin your text with Tip650 and then type your message. You will receive a response from the Cambridge Police with the option to continue communicating.

Please remember that these are not replacements for 9-1-1. If you witness an emergency situation, please call 9-1-1 immediately.

Have fun, be safe, and go Bruins!
