Cambridge Police Arrest Suspect Less than 24 Hours after Stabbing

July 27, 2011 – Today, Cambridge Police, Boston Police, and U.S. Marshalls arrested Malcolm Beasley, 24, of Boston and charged him with Armed Assault with Intent to Murder less than twenty four hours after a stabbing that occurred shortly before 1:30 PM yesterday.

Beasley is a suspect in yesterday's stabbing which occurred at the Youth on Fire shelter in Cambridge after he had an argument with a male known to him that resulted in the victim being stabbed multiple times. The victim was transported to the hospital with serious injuries and is currently in stable condition.

Beasley was arrested at a relative's house in Boston where he was apprehended by Cambridge Police Detectives with the help of Boston Police and the U.S. Marshals Service.

The details contained above are allegations. The suspect is presumed to be innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
