Cambridge Police Officer Michael Daniliuk Honored at CCTV's Backyard BBQ

September 17, 2010 – Rain didn't dampen the spirits of those in attendance at Cambridge Community Television's Backyard BBQ on Thursday, September 16th.

The event featured food from some of the best local eateries, music by Zili Misik, a silent auction, and presentations of the Leading Role Award to three of Cambridge's finest public servants.

Officer Michael "Whitey" Daniliuk of the Cambridge Police Department was honored alongside Robert Hurlbut, Jr. and Khari Milner. Officer Daniliuk has been a Cambridge Patrol Officer for 13 years, and joined the Cambridge Police Family Services Unit this year as the Youth Outreach Coordinator.

A life-long Cantabrigian, Whitey was the director of the West Cambridge Youth Center from 1991-1997, is a board member of the Ahern Foundation and Gallucio Associations, co-founder and co-commissioner of the North Cambridge Nite Court Basketball League, and current and former coach of various Cambridge youth sports including Babe Ruth Baseball and Cambridge Pride Basketball.

This spring, Whitey began the Man to Man Each One Teach One project to engage positive male role models with disconnected male teens in Cambridge in order to address negative behavioral and societal issues.

The Cambridge Police Department is very proud of Officer Daniliuk's contributions to the City and citizens of Cambridge and we congratulate him on this great honor.
