CPD to Participate in Door-to-Door Events in East & West Cambridge Tonight

September 9, 2010 – The Cambridge Police Department, in conjunction with the Cambridge Department of Health Service Programs, are gearing up for door-to-door campaigns to be held tonight at Corcoran Park and Roosevelt Towers.

Beginning at 5:30 PM tonight, members of the Cambridge Police Community Relations Unit and personnel from the Department of Health Service Programs will knock on doors to greet residents and provide them with information about Community Resource Nights to be held next week.

For residents who are not home, a door tag will be left behind with important information for citizens as well as the following schedule for the Community Resource Nights:

- The East Cambridge Community Event will be held at the Russell/West Cambridge Youth Center on Wednesday, September 15th, from 5:30-7:00 PM.
- The West Cambridge Community Event will be held in the Community Room at the Roosevelt Towers on Thursday, September 16th, from 5:30-7:00 PM.
