Deputy Superintendent Michael Walsh Retires After 36 Years of Service

December 2, 2010 – On November 26th, after 36 years of service to the City of Cambridge, its citizens, and the Cambridge Police Department, Deputy Superintendent Michael Walsh retired from service.

Deputy Walsh was born and raised in Cambridge and began with the department as a Police Cadet in 1974 before graduating from the Cambridge Police Academy in 1981. He served as a Patrol Officer from 1981 until he was promoted to the rank of Police Sergeant in 1990. Walsh was promoted to Police Lieutenant in 1997 before becoming a Deputy Superintendent in 2002.

Throughout his career, Deputy Walsh worked very closely with neighborhood groups and was on the Board of Directors of the Margaret Fuller House.

Upon retirement, Walsh said, “I would like to thank all of you that have worked with me in the many units and divisions I have worked within over the years. Each of you represents, and are part of, one of the most professional organizations I have seen and I am proud to have been a part of it.”

The Cambridge Police Department would like to thank Mike Walsh for his years of dedication and service and wish him well in his future endeavors.
