Dreamy astrophysicist longs to meet a handsome, intelligent, romantic man. Small-town Fire Chief C.D. Bales is two out of three... but looks aren't everything!

Based on the classic comedy of errors "Cyrano de Bergerac," this award-winning movie presents a charming allegory about human differences, as Roxanne falls for C.D.'s personality, but another man's looks.

Our moderator will be Carolyn Thompson, disability consultant, speaker, writer, and recently retired from the Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities. As a person with a life long facial difference, Carolyn will share her unique perspective about the issues presented in "Roxanne."

This is a scent free event.

Out of consideration for people with environmental illness or multiple chemical sensitivity, please refrain from using perfume or other scented products. For sign language interpreters or other accommodations, please contact the Commission for Persons with Disabilities by July 20th at 617-349-4692 (voice) or 617-492-0235 (TTY) or email kthurman@cambridgema.gov
