

Announcing Fresh Pond Reservation's 2011 Volunteer Weekend Weedouts

Sundays 1 - 4 pm

June 5 black swallow-wort, Phase I: dig

July 10 black swallow-wort, Phase II: pod pull
& Pod Patrol campaign kickoff

August 7 mugwort

September 11 oriental bittersweet

October 16 buckthorn, Phase I

November 6 buckthorn, Phase II

All volunteer steward programs meet at the Water Dept. parking lot volunteer trailer.
Tools and training provided.
To join us, email Deb at fpr@cambridgema.gov or call 617.349.6489

* Native species allow natural ecosystems to function, giving us clean air and water, stable slopes and embankments, and diverse habitats and food sources for native animal species. Non-native species, in absence of natural controls, can break down environmental functions and displace native plant and animal communities.